

PRESCOTT VALLEY PUBLIC LIBRARY
PRESCOTT VALLEY, ARIZONA
BYLAWS

ARTICLE I

On June 26, 1980, the Town Council (Council) of the Town of Prescott Valley (Town) voted to create the Prescott Valley Public Library (Library). In accordance with Arizona Revised Statutes ARS §9-414, the Council voted on July 24, 1980, to form a Library Board of Trustees (Board) and to begin accepting applications for membership. On September 2, 1980, Town Manager Fred Carpenter met with the newly appointed Board members and assisted them in their initial organization. In accordance with ARS §9-415, the Board has had the charge of the Library interest.

As appointed by the Council, the Board shall consist of seven (7) members who are residents of the Town (Members) and library patrons. One of the members of the Board must be a high school or homeschooled student ages 15-18 or in grades 10-12. The student member's term ends upon completion of high school. The student member has the same rights and privileges as other members. Before interviewing for a trustee position, all applicants must attend a Library Board of Trustees meeting. Terms of Members shall be three (3) years from July 1 in the year of their appointment, and Members may succeed themselves for additional terms. Members and their replacements shall be appointed by the Council in accordance with the procedures established by the Council from time to time. Members of the Library Board shall not serve on other Town Boards or serve as an officer on the Friends of the Prescott Valley Library.

ARTICLE II

Regular Board meetings are scheduled for the first Tuesday of each calendar month (except December) at a regular time established from time to time by vote of the Members. Board meetings may be rescheduled if there is no quorum. A quorum consists of a majority of the total Board, i.e., four (4) Members. Special Board meetings may be held at such other times as may be called for by the President or by a written request signed by at least four (4) Members. Such members shall conform to the Arizona Open Meeting Law. Such meetings shall require a quorum of Members. "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised" will be used as a resource in conducting meetings.

Nomination and election of Officers shall be conducted annually. Typically, the Board will nominate Officers in the regularly scheduled July meeting and elect Officers in the same meeting.

Committees of Members may be appointed from time to time by the President and shall meet as deemed necessary by a majority of the Committee.

ARTICLE III

A. The qualifications and duties of the Officers of the Board are as follows:

1. President- The President should possess strong leadership skills, be knowledgeable of State and local laws regarding libraries, have a good working relationship with the Library Manager, and the ability and willingness to donate time and energy to achieving the mission and goals of the Library.

The President calls and presides over all Board meetings and prepares an agenda in consultation with the Administrative Assistant. The President also establishes an atmosphere and procedure in meetings so that everyone has a chance to be heard.

The President also -

Appoints permanent and temporary Committees for specific assignments and monitors their effectiveness.

Serves as spokesperson for the Board (reflecting the consensus of the Board).

May serve on local, regional, or national task forces and committees.

Works closely with the Library Manager and staff between meetings and on special issues.

Works closely with the Secretary and other Members to assure follow-up to correspondence.

Note: The President is only one member of the Board and cannot make policy, budget or other decisions unilaterally outside of the specific duties set forth herein.

2. Vice President - The Vice President should possess the same leadership skills as the President.

The Vice President conducts meetings and handles Board business in the absence of the President.

The Vice President presides whenever the President temporarily vacates or steps down from the position.

The Board may delegate to the Vice President from time to time the responsibility for monitoring activities of one or more Committees.

3. Secretary - The Secretary should possess significant knowledge of the organization of the Library, take accurate and comprehensive notes and minutes (in the absence of the Administrative Assistant), possess the ability to draft necessary letters and possess good organizational skills.

The Administrative Assistant issues all calls or notices of meetings for the Board and Committees.

The Secretary also -

Edits the official minutes of all Board and Committee meetings in cooperation with the Administrative Assistant for the Library.

Prepares roll call lists and calls the roll when necessary.

Presides at meetings when the President and Vice President are not present.

Assists the President with parliamentary procedures.

Brings and reads as requested necessary material at meetings. These materials include the Trustee Handbook and Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. From time to time, the President may request other materials be brought.

Records in official Board minutes (in the absence of the Administrative Assistant) the names of all Committee members as appointed.

Authenticates by signature all official records and documents.

Handles all correspondence and distribution of mail (with the assistance of the Library staff).

Follows through to ensure that all correspondence requiring replies has been answered.

The Board may delegate to the Secretary from time to time the responsibility for placing notices, stories or other material in organizational newsletters.

Reconciles the Trustee's petty cash.

Note: Since the duties of a Secretary are numerous, Library staff may assist in handling the paperwork, and the Secretary should work closely with the Library-Manager in this regard.
